SEVEN DATES WITH DEATH

Debuts Tuesday, Feb. 7 and Wednesday, Feb. 8 at
The Santa Barbara International Film Festival

Seven Dates with Death* lays open the soul of Moreese Bickham, a man who endured 38 years at Louisiana's infamous Angola Prison and seven execution dates to finally greet freedom with forgiveness and grace.

In his own words, Bickham, the nation's oldest living survivor of Death Row, ushers the viewer of this intimate short documentary deep into his unimaginable and agonizing journey.

At age 98, Bickham is direct and endearing as he shares his life from Jim Crow to Death Row to become a free man in a world transformed from the one he left at age 41.

Seven Dates with Death* will be screened at 10:20 AM on Tuesday, February 7 at Fiesta Theatre 2, and at 2:20 PM on Wednesday, February 8 at Metro Theatre 2.

Co-Executive Producers Mike Holland and Joan Cheever will be available for interviews.
